I know you've heard from us a lot the past few days. But we both know how important it is to stand up for our planet in the face of unprecedented threats. That's why I hope you'll rush your year-end gift now, and have it tripled by our generous donor.

I won't lie; this has been the hardest year I've experienced at the Sierra Club -- from Donald Trump's tapping of corporate polluters and climate science deniers for key cabinet posts to his budget gutting the EPA; from his decision to pull us from the Paris Climate Agreement to his moves to scrap the Clean Power Plan... and so much more.

But it's also been one of the most affirming. Despite Trump's inauguration as the most anti-environment president in modern history, we were able to close 11 more dirty, coal-burning power plants, expand our champions from 2 million to 3 million, and -- thanks to the truly incredible generosity of supporters like you -- help hurricane-ravaged communities in Texas, Florida and Puerto Rico recover and begin to rebuild.

We're heading into 2018 the biggest we've ever been -- but we also face some of our biggest challenges:

Blocking the Keystone Pipeline once and for all. Saving the Endangered Species Act itself from extinction. Defending the Clean Power Plan in court. We need you. Please, renew your support for \$15 or more now, before this incredible TRIPLE match offer expires in just 36 hours.

Thank you for all you do. Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

This year we've faced:

- Corporate polluters
- Climate science deniers
- Monument destroyers

We can't let them win.

Renew your support to help us fight back in 2018 and have it tripled up to \$250,000 -- but only until MIDNIGHT TOMORROW.

We'll send you our Eco-Chic Reusable Bag Set -- FREE.
